

2. What is a virtual race?

A virtual race can be run or walked and the participant logs their results at the end. Races are undertaken at participants own risk and must be completed within Government guidelines and the law.